St. Lawrence Hockey History

Hockey was first played at St. Lawrence University on an informal basis early in the 1900s. An outdoor rink was constructed in the campus vicinity as early as 1912 and games were played between campus groups and some outside non-collegiate competition.

Hockey became more formal in terms of competition in the mid-1920s with the start of intercollegiate competition. The earliest recorded games were a pair of losses to Clarkson in the 1925-26 season. Opponents in the early years included both collegiate and club teams. Only games against intercollegiate teams are counted in the Saint hockey records and official score list.

St. Lawrence has played 2031 games since 1925-26 and has compiled an all-time record of 1025-892-114. Hockey declined in the 1930s with no intercollegiate games played for several seasons. It was revived late in the decade, but was interrupted from 1944-46 during the war.

The "modern era" of Saint ice hockey began with the construction and opening of Appleton Arena in 1950-51. The Saint record at Appleton Arena since its opening is 575-308-61.

Since the opening of Appleton Arena, the Saint program has produced 35 All America players, seven of whom were two-time selections, ten Hobey Baker Award finalists and seven ECAC Players of the Year.

ECAC Hockey, the largest and oldest collegiate hockey league in the nation, began in 1961-62 and St. Lawrence won the first league championship tournament. Since that time Saint teams have won five other tournament titles and the 2007 Saint team became the third to win the regular season championship.

The St. Lawrence program was one of the best in the East in the 1950s and made its first NCAA tournament appearance in the 1952 season. From its inception in 1948 until 1976, the NCAA tournament was a four-team affair. St. Lawrence made NCAA appearances in 1952, 1955, 1956, 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962, reaching the championship game in 1961.

Saint hockey teams played on outdoor rinks prior to the opening of Appleton Arena in January of 1951.

The Saints returned to the NCAA tournament in 1983 after a 22-year hiatus and made consecutive appearances in 1987, 1988 and 1989, reaching the championship game for the second time in team history in 1988 with a 4-3 overtime loss to Lake Superior State in the final. The Saints were the second seed in the 1988 and 1992 tournaments, receiving a first round bye and were also the second seed in the East in the 2000 tournament, beating Boston University in a memorable four-overtime quarterfinal which was the longest game in NCAA tournament history at that time. The team returned to the tournament in 2001 and played its second straight opening round overtime game, falling to Colorado College in two overtimes.

The most recent NCAA tournament appearances for the Saints came in the 2006-07 season when the Saints met Boston College in the regional semifinal.

St. Lawrence has served as the host school for two NCAA Frozen Fours, both in Lake Placid. The Saints hosted the 1984 tournament, won by Bowling Green and were both host and finalist in the 1988 tournament.

The 1988 team, which set a program record for victories with 29 (matched the next season) is one of the few teams in NCAA tournament history to reach the final game and be a host school in one tournament.

The 1988 and 1989 teams also hosted the only men's NCAA games played at Appleton Arena, winning a two-game total goals series against Wisconsin 10-4 in 1988 and losing a best of three quarter-final series, also to Wisconsin, 3-1 and 4-2 in 1989. The 1988 team beat Wisconsin 7-0 for the lone NCAA tournament win at Appleton in game one of that total goals series.

While the Saint schedule in the early years frequently featured games with Canadian opponents, the only games which now count in the team records are those against US programs. The schedule does include an annual exhibition against a Canadian team which does not count in the statistics. Saint teams have also played exhibition games against Russian teams, Kladno and Yaroslavl and against a Czech National squad.

Charles W. Appleton II Hockey Coach Greg Carvel

The second St. Lawrence graduate and second Canton native to be named head hockey coach at the University, Greg Carvel '93 took over as Charles W. Appleton II Men's Ice Hockey Coach from Joe Marsh who retired after a stellar 26-season career in the spring of 2012.

Carvel, who joined the Saint staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2011-12 season, spent his first official season as head coach in 2012-13, but served as co-coach along with Associate Head Coach Mike Hurlbut for the 2011-12 season while Marsh was on medical leave. Carvel's 18-16-4 mark in his first official season as coach is the best for a first-year Saint coach since 1955-56.

A former captain and the first CoSIDA Academic All America in program history, Carvel follows Bernie McKinnon '58 as an alumni coach and Paul Patten, who coached from 1947-50 as the second coach in program history who was born and raised in Canton. Carvel was an outstanding hockey and soccer player at Canton High School, earning All Northern honors in both sports. He prepped at the Hotchkiss School and had 35 goals and 75 points for the league championship team. He was first team All New England, MVP in Hockey Night in Boston, Hockey Night Offensive Player of the Year and Hotchkiss MVP among many awards in his prep year.

A member of the National Honor Society and a cum laude Hotchkiss graduate, he earned a Presidential Scholarship to St. Lawrence.

His hockey and academic success carried over to his collegiate career. He was a three-time winner of the Brian McFarlane Award for excellence in academics and hockey, elected to Phi Beta Kappa, the national academic honorary, the winner of the Kevin Dougherty Memorial Scholarship and the Brian P. Doyle Memorial Trophy for leadership, character and athletic ability. He captained the team as a senior, the second Canton native to wear the "C" for the Saints, joining Al Bloomer, who was captain in 1963-64. He led the Saints in scoring with 14 goals and 34 assists as a senior and at graduation was ninth on the all-time Saint career list in assists with 85. He finished his career with 38 goals and 85 assists for 123 points in 130 games. He earned ECAC All-Rookie honors as a freshman and was named the ECAC Best Defensive Forward as a senior.

He played one year of professional hockey in Sweden and then became assistant athletic director and assistant hockey coach at Canterbury Prep. He went on to earn a master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst in 1996 and served as an assistant coach for Amherst College while pursuing his degree.

He joined the Saint staff after a 15-year professional hockey career which included assistant coaching positions with the Ottawa Senators and Anaheim Ducks of the National Hockey League, helping both teams reach the Stanley Cup Finals.

He started his professional career as director of hockey operations for the Lowell Lock Monsters of the American Hockey League. He joined Anaheim as scouting coordinator in May of 1999. He added video coaching duties to his title in Anaheim in 2002 and was promoted to assistant coach in 2003. He joined the Senators in 2004 and was on the staff of that team until the summer of 2011.

THE APPLETON COACHING ENDOWMENT

St. Lawrence University became the third eastern college to establish an endowed hockey coaching position in May of 1997 when family and friends of the late Charles W. Appleton II established the Charles W. Appleton II Hockey Coach position in his memory.

Saint coach Joe Marsh was named the first Charles W. Appleton II Hockey Coach, joining coaches at Yale and Harvard as holders of endowed positions.

Appleton, a member of the class of 1960, was one of the University's longtime fans and supporters.

The Appleton family have been major benefactors to the University, and Appleton Arena, the home of the Saints men's and women's hockey teams, bears their name.

The Appleton endowment ensures a predictable annual income that will grow over time, providing greater flexibility for the use of University resources. Over the years, the Saint hockey program has been an important link for many generations of alumni. Given the Appleton family's association with the program since its inception, it is only fitting that the coaching endowment bears their name.

The Saint Coaching Staff

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

MIKE HURLBUT '89

An All America defenseman for the Saints in 1989, Mike Hurlbut joined the Saint coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach to start the 2002-03 season and became a full-time assistant coach in the spring of 2008.

A member of two of the most successful teams in program history, the Massena, NY native had a long and successful career in professional hockey. He spent 14 years in the International and American Hockey Leagues and played 29 games, scoring one goal and assisting on eight others, in the National Hockey League.

Among the teams he played for were the Houston Aeros, Minnesota Moose, Binghamton Rangers and Rochester Americans. He played 23 games with the New York Rangers in 1992-93 and also had NHL stints with the Quebec Nordique and Buffalo Sabres.

An all-star defenseman while in Rochester, he was named captain of the 2000 AHL Planet USA all-star team. He played in a total of 839 professional games and scored 117 goals with 364 assists.

ASSISTANT COACH

KRIS MAYOTTE

A goaltender for Union College with professional playing experience, Kris Mayotte joined the Saint coaching staff in the summer of 2012. He spent the 2011-12 season as a volunteer assistant coach at Cornell following an eight-year playing career as a goalie in both college and the professional ranks.

The first full-time goaltending coach on the Saint staff in program history, Mayotte will assist in all phases of the program and will play a major role in recruiting.

A native of Pittsburgh, Mayotte was the primary starting goalie for Union for four seasons, spanning from 2002 to 2006. Mayotte was named to the ECAC Hockey All-Rookie team after his freshman season and earned a spot on the all-league second team after his senior campaign. He played 116 career games for Union, finishing with a 2.69 career goals against average and 10 shutouts.

Mayotte moved on to the professional ranks for five seasons following college, playing for nine different teams during his career.

The Joe Marsh Era

Hockey coach Joe Marsh retired in May of 2012 following a 26-year career which included some of the brightest moments in program history.

Marsh compiled a record of 468-399-72 in his 26 seasons, the most career victories of any active ECAC coach at the time of his retirement and became the third coach in NCAA Division I history to accrue more than 400 wins at one institution. The seventh coach since 1951 to win multiple Spencer Penrose Awards as NCAA Division I Coach of the Year and ECAC Coach of the Year a record four times, he won five ECAC championships, took teams to eight NCAA tournaments and made two Frozen Four appearances. He coached 18 All America players, seven Hobey Baker finalists, six ECAC Player of the Year Award winners, four ECAC Rookies of the Year, five ECAC Outstanding Defensive Forward award winners and five ECAC Outstanding Defensive Defenseman award winners.

As impressive as that coaching record is, he will be remembered for a lot more. "One of the most glib, humorous speakers in college hockey, and one with a rock-solid reputation," said College Hockey News columnist Adam Wooton. "The ideal example of a player's coach," said Don Vaughan, now the head coach at Colgate, a former Saint player and a one-time Marsh assistant. "He's just a legend in our coaching profession, and one of the best people that we have in our game. Forget about coaching, he's just one of the best people," RPI coach Seth Appert told Ken Schott of the Schenectady Gazette. "When I think of my time with Joe, I think of laughter," said former associate head coach Bob Prier, who both played for and coached with Marsh and is now the head coach at Princeton. "We worked well together and we worked hard, but we had a lot of fun and a lot of laughs too," Prier added.

A man who could quote Churchill in one breath and mimic Daffy Duck in the next, Marsh thoroughly enjoyed teaching in the First Year Program. He took a serious interest in the welfare of his players away from the game and that caring has been returned in many ways by former players. He has not only attended a ton of former players' weddings, he has even officiated one.

"I first got to know Joe when he was my coach in Hockey Night in Boston and then went on to play for him at St. Lawrence," said Greg Carvel, who was named Marsh's replacement as head coach. "I doubt many Division I players have had a head coach that they know so well. I am indebted to him for the opportunity to coach here, and for much more." Mike Hurlbut, another former Marsh player and an assistant coach since 2003 said "You want to play hard for a coach like Joe Marsh. He's hard to replicate. Every coach has their own style. I have a lot of experience with different coaches to draw upon, but he's a unique individual.

"When I think of Joe from a hockey perspective, it was always about the student-athlete first. Nobody wanted to win more than Joe, but he put their well-being at the forefront. He did it the right way and that was one of the things I have tried to emulate in my career," said Vaughan who has won over 300 games in 19 seasons as head coach at Colgate. "He is one of best motivators in the game...guys will go through the wall for him. While wins and losses are important, Joe has always been able to keep things in perspective...it is about the welfare of the players, keeping the big picture in focus."

Marsh himself said "Emotion is an integral part of this game. I certainly never walked into the game and didn't have an emotional feel to do it. I think for a guy that coached that way, 26 years is a pretty long kick. I hope that the players feel I was a player's coach and I cared about them."

SAINTS MAKE 16TH NCAA APPEARANCE IN '07

The 2006-07 Saint season included the 16th NCAA tournament appearance in program history and the third since 1999-2000 when they reached the Frozen Four.

The Saints and Boston University made NCAA tourney history on a Sunday afternoon in late March 2000 when they played the longest game in NCAA tournament history and one of the longest ever in collegiate hockey. The game, which took just over six hours to complete, went into four overtimes before Robin Carruthers won it with a goal at 3:53 of the fourth extra period. Records for shots and saves also tumbled in the 3-2 Saint win which put the Saints, second Eastern seed, into the semifinals against Boston College. While the Saints lost 4-2 with an empty net goal in that game, they made the deepest advancement of an ECAC team in the tournament in several seasons and their second trip to the Frozen Four since 1988. The Saints returned to the NCAA field in 2000-2001 and again went to overtime, losing 3-2 to Colorado College in Worcester, MA.

Selection is automatic for the tournament champion from each of five different Division I leagues. At-large berths fill the rest of the 16-team field, which is divided into four regionals with the East Regional in Albany, the Midwest Regional in Madison, WI, the Northeast Regional in Worcester, MA and the West Regional in Colorado Springs, CO. The Frozen Four will be at the Pepsi Center in Denver, CO., April 10 and 12.

Among the criteria for selection and seeding are overall record, strength of schedule and record against other teams being considered for NCAA berths. A total of 58 colleges and universities sponsor Division I men's ice hockey.

The 2007 regional appearance by the Saints was their eighth tournament appearance since 1986-87. The 1999-2000 team was the East's second seed. They earned that seeding by being the only team in the nation to win both its conference regular season and tournament titles. The 1988 team went all the way to the NCAA championship game and the 1999-2000 team was just the second since 1962 to earn a spot in the Frozen Four. The Saints made five appearances in the national semifinals between 1952 and 1962 when only four teams were chosen for the tournament. St. Lawrence has played in the national championship game twice, 1961 and 1988.

The 1988 team won St. Lawrence's first-ever NCAA tournament home game when it shocked the University of Wisconsin 7-0 in the first of a two-game, total goals series in the quarterfinals. While the Badgers came back to take a 4-3 win in the second game, the Saints had a 10-4 total goals win and were off to Lake Placid for the semifinals and finals both as a participant and as one of the host schools.

The Saints earned their title shot with a 3-2 win over Minnesota in the semifinals as All America and ECAC Player of the Year Pete Lappin completed a hat trick with just 12 seconds left to give the Saints the win in one of the tournament's best games. Lake Superior State edged the Saints 4-3 in overtime in the championship game.

The 1988-89 team made it three appearances in a row for Joe Marsh-coached teams and hosted Wisconsin for the second straight year, but this time the Badgers prevailed and advanced in the tournament.
